The Tulsa County Sheriff's Office Seeks Help In Identifying Three Armed Robbery Suspects

December 23, 2011

The Tulsa County Sheriff's Office is requesting your help in identifying three suspects in the armed robbery of John's Berryhill Food Market located at 3031 South 65th West Avenue in Berryhill.

On December 21st, 2011 at approximately 2158 hours (9:58 p.m.), Tulsa County Sheriff's Office Deputies responded to an armed robbery call at John's Berryhill Food Market. Upon arrival, deputies were informed that three men came into the market and began immediately beating the clerk on duty. During the beating, one of the suspects pointed a weapon at the clerk's wife and began demanding money. The clerk's wife provided the money and pleaded with the suspects to stop assaulting her husband. After being given the money the suspects fled from the store southbound on foot.

Both victims of the robbery are cooperating with sheriff's deputies in an attempt to apprehend these individuals. However, out of respect for the wife of victim, she is requesting that her identity be concealed.

Suspect Description 1: B/M 5'07-5'08/140-150 lbs. The suspect was wearing a gray Penn State hoodie, black pants, white shoes, and a gray bandanna that covered his face.

Suspect Description 2: B/M 5'07-5'08/140-150 lbs. The suspect was wearing a black hoodie with a white circular logo on the front, black pants, white shoes, a red bandanna covering his face, a white bracelet on his right wrist, and was armed with a black and silver semi-automatic handgun.

Suspect Description 3: B/M 5'07-5'08/140-150 lbs. The suspect was wearing a gray hoodie, black pants, and white shoes.

Anybody with information concerning this armed robbery is asked to call the Tulsa County Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigative Division at 918-596-8661.

Video footage of this armed robbery is available to the media by request.
